

Friends and Recommended Artists and Museums

Janelle Lynch: My mentor and an incredible photographer working principally in large format film landscape work and cyanotype.

Janellelynch.net

The International Center for Photography in New York City is museum, school, and presenter of programs looking at all things photographic. Current exhibit We Are Here, a reexamination of Street Photography. We Are Here: Scenes from the Streets | International Center of Photography

lcp.org

The Whitney Museum of American Art presents American Art, both classic artists like their recent Edward Hopper show, to the astounding abstract works by Julie Mehretu to the current Oct. 2024 through Jan 2025 exhibit on Alvin Ailey, dancer, choreographer and inspirer of so many artists. Always mind opening work. Current featured Ailey exhibition: Edges of Ailey | Whitney Museum of American Art through Feb 9, 2025

Whitney.org

The Museum of Modern Art is the grand cathedral of modern art with a permanent collection that includes Monet's Water Lilies and Picasso's La Demoiselles D'Avignon among its amazing collection. Current featured show is Life Dances On: Robert Frank in Dialogue. Life Dances On: Robert Frank in Dialogue | MoMA

MOMA.org

Joann Chaus, a New York based photographer whose current work is an excellent and deep exploration of self portraiture. Exhibited in the USA and internationally, Joann's work examines women, family and identity.

www.joannchaus.com

Matt Karas has photographed bodies in motion for years, working with organizations including the John F Kennedy Center for the Arts and the Joyce Theatre among many others. His love of life through the lens manifests itself in the way that he captures the motion of emotion. Matt loves to provoke and spark emotion from people. His current series Apparitions looks at movement and personalities in new ways.

<https://www.mattkaras.com/>

Daniela Guerrero, based in Asheville North Carolina, has produced an elegant body of work centered around themes of home and family.

IG: <https://www.instagram.com/unifiedharmoniouswhole?igsh=ZTd6M2Zpb3hiMjdm>

Website: Daniela Guerrero